Former pupil, and Mrs Butler's son, Jack represented England at Football at the weekend. He has been selected as part of the Schools Under 18 Football team to play in a home nations tournament.

Jack will hopefully join us for an assembly later in the year to tell the children all about his experience.

PARENT APPOINTMENTS: A reminder that next week parent appointments will take place. Please contact Mrs Callaghan for an appointment time.

Nursery—Monday PM

Y1/2—Tuesday PM

Y3/4—Wednesday PM

Whole school—Thursday evening

IMPORTANT: Reception appointments will be rescheduled and will not take place next week.

SPORTS DAY: Following last weeks information regarding sports day I just wanted to confirm the dates for your diaries.

Sports day date: Friday 30th June 1:30pm onwards

Provisional date (in case of postponement due to the bad weather): Friday 14th July

Full details of the afternoon to follow closer to the date.

BUILDING WORK: The workmen on the church are making good progress and hope to begin taking some of the scaffolding down very soon to free up come of our yard space again. However, the car park is still closed to staff and parents. Thank you for your support.

YEAR 2 SATs MEETING: Wednesday 15th February @ 9am- Miss McDougall is inviting Year 2 parents to come into school to discuss the Key Stage 1 SATs tests . Please join us to find out more about the challenges of completing these 'special tasks'!
